A spurned fiancée, a lavish trip to Vegas, corporate embezzlement and a sexy human centerpiece on display for a bunch of millionaires at a wild bachelor party.

Did I mention there was chocolate?

My oh my...what could possibly happen?

When Miranda finds out her high-flying fiance' is cheating on her, and that he's cheating his partners, she decides to take matters into her own hands and get revenge in a delicious way that will even the score.

After being told that Good Girls don't look at other men, and certainly don't touch other men, she's ready to give Richard a taste of his own medicine. A group of handsome party-goers are more than happy to help her out, and she discovers strengths and passions she never knew she had.

They say that revenge is a dish best served cold. Yes, cold enough that Miranda had time to plot it out, but HOT enough to make it sizzle and burn.
