«En el camarote, sentados alrededor de una lámpara que, con su luz agonizante, volvía aún más tétrica la oscuridad, todo el mundo tenía algún naufragio o catástrofe que relatar.»

Washington Irving, «La travesía»

El 25 de diciembre de 1492 Cristóbal Colón anotaba en su Diario que la nao Santa María acababa de encallar en la costa noroeste de la actual República Dominicana. Con este pasaje se inicia nuestra antología de Relatos del mar, preparada por Marta Salís: 40 piezas de distintos géneros, épocas y nacionalidades que ilustran, a través de la narración histórica o la literatura de creación, la fascinación que el mar ha ejercido desde siempre sobre el ser humano.

Memorias de exploradores, capitanes negreros, esclavos y naufragos se combinan con relatos de pescadores, piratas, buscadores de tesoros y simples pasajeros; la dimensión épica convive con la exploración lírica, sin olvidar los buques fantasma y toda la contribución del mar al género fantástico. Veremos a Jack London haciendo surf y a un elegante matrimonio, en un cuento de Scott Fitzgerald, a punto de zozobrar, real y figuradamente, en el curso de una larga travesía. Asistiremos con Turguénev a un incendio en el mar y con Kafka a la confesión de un hombre condenado a vagar en una barca por toda la eternidad... La nómina de autores aquí representados reúne varios nombres clave de la literatura universal.
