La política de la incertidumbre en los regímenes electorales autoritarios (Spanish Edition) Andreas Schedler

Ensayo desde la política institucional comparada en que el politólogo Schedler hace una exhaustiva categorización de los regímenes electorales autoritarios, desde la caída del bloque soviético hasta inicios del siglo XXI, y los mecanismos políticos e institucionales que les caracterizan. Para el autor, la lucha por el poder en estos regímenes significa la manipulación y control de mecanismos típicamente democráticos representativos, como las elecciones multipartidistas, para la legitimación de las autocracias que no tienen la seguridad de su estada en el poder y no pueden saber qué tanto control tienen sobre los gobernados. Traslada las coordenadas del análisis a varios niveles, para entender cómo se concreta esta incertidumbre electoral en una política de la incertidumbre.
