Donne da Nobel (Italian Edition) Massimo di Terlizzi

Quarantaquattro donne. Quarantaquattro storie di vite incredibili, una diversa dall'altra, legate da un unico filo conduttore. Questo libro vuole rendere omaggio a tutte coloro che con le loro scoperte rivoluzionarie e il loro operato hanno cambiato per sempre la storia dell'umanità e che per questo sono state insignite dell'onorificenza più prestigiosa, il premio Nobel.

Scorrendo le biografie si ha la percezione di quanto sia cambiata la società dall'inizio del ventesimo secolo ad oggi, anche dal punto di vista dell'emancipazione femminile. Si comprende quanto sia stato complicato per le nate a inizio del '900 avere accesso a un'istruzione superiore ed essere considerate dai colleghi maschi. Molte hanno dovuto lottare duramente per affermarsi e far conoscere il loro talento, a dispetto anche della famiglia, che le voleva esclusivamente mogli e madri. Ma credevano in se stesse, avevano un sogno che le portava a superare qualsiasi difficoltà, con un'incrollabile determinazione. Queste donne dimostrano che con la perseveranza e l'apertura verso gli altri si può arrivare dove si desidera e che, come insegnava la grande Rita Levi Montalcini (Nobel per la Medicina), "la chiave dell'esistenza umana non è l'amore, bensì la curiosità".
