Jordan Kendall made one mistake, ruining the scorching hot relationship with the man he still loves. It's a mistake he's still running from—and it's time to stop. Riddled with self-doubt Jordan knows the only way to slay his demons is to return home to face Preston. Maybe if Preston forgives him, Jordan can finally forgive himself. And with any luck, Preston might let Jordan prove just how sorry he is in every creative position he can come up with.

Second-guessing his decision to allow Jordan to leave comes naturally to Preston Townes. When Jordan comes home to his sister's house, Preston knows it's now or never. He can't resist the opportunity to pull Jordan back into his life—and into his bed. With a little help from some four-footed friends Preston gets the opening he needs to show Jordan the past is gone and their spark is stronger than ever.
