Just What the Doctors Ordered: An Intriguing Mystery With Echoes of The Second World War

Emilie Defreyne

Set in the Essex backwaters this is an intriguing mystery with echoes of the Second World War and South America, keeping the reader guessing right to the end. A chance encounter between childhood acquaintances and a little dog leads first to love and then a mystery surrounding a presumed "accidental" death. A series of unexpected events and circumstances place the two lovers in turn and then together in desperate danger. following a dramatic climax the truth is revealed, which stretches back many years over many continents.
