Lots of young people want to be good; they're just afraid of taking it too far. "People will think I'm a geek or a goody-goody", they complain. Brother Christianson challenges that notion. He shows convincingly how doing your best to be good puts you in touch with spiritual powers that will improve your everyday life. Drawing on his experiences as a college football player, a teacher, and a dad, he demonstrates that the only way to be really happy is to be true to yourself.
