Stand Alone Romance: Based on a True Story Danielle Greyson

This Stand Alone Romance is based on a true story; names are made up to protect real identities.

After a failed marriage I did all mistakes imaginable with men, including dating married men.

Dating married men for me was only a safe path at the time, because I knew they wouldn't give up on their marriage just to be with me, and even if they say they would, I would never agree with it, because if they were unfaithful in their marriage, at some point they would be unfaithful in mine.

Unable to rise up from the shadow of a broken marriage I was failing everywhere, as a woman, as a mother, and professionally. I was dragging a financial problem since I was alone with my children, my job wasn't pay my bills and married man were sometimes helping me, but not on a regular basis and I was completely broke financially.

One day I got introduced to a wealthy investor, a rich businessman with lots of companies in many different fields and I thought, this was my opportunity to shine and finally make a huge deal coming out of red. But this guy was more interested in me than doing business which I so desperately needed.

With Mike I met people I never thought it was possible and I went through paths I never thought I could cross.

And when this was not enough, I found out the whole truth about him and nothing seemed to be what it was...
