Doce lecturas fundamentales de ciencia política (Spanish Edition) Irene DELGADO SOTILLOS, Lourdes LÓPEZ NIETO

El estudio de la política como disciplina se caracteriza por tener un objeto de contornos poco definidos y ciertamente difusos, que vienen dibujados por una tradición académica y docente consolidada. La misma tradición que invita a dejar la ventana abierta a la eventual incorporación de nuevas áreas de estudio llamadas a cubrir los problemas políticos emergentes. Desde esta perspectiva, este libro reúne doce textos que pueden ser considerados fundamentales para conocer y analizar los enfoques y los métodos que conforman el pluralismo temático de la Ciencia Política durante el siglo XX. La utilidad objetiva de un libro de estas características reside en ofrecer al lector una visión global de las diferentes perspectivas que han permitido el avance de la disciplina.
