Empeñados (Ensayo periodístico) (Spanish Edition) Rafael Loret de Mola

Un texto controversial escrito desde las entrañas. Una crítica mordaz que utiliza la razón, la conciencia y que no deja de lado el enojo y hartazgo, volviéndose así la voz de la gran mayoría de mexicanos en este momento tristemente histórico de México.

Un análisis profundo que pasa desde los escándalos de corrupción (Casa Blanca de La Gaviota, viajes y excesos de Peña Nieto, despilfarro de las hijas de Peña y de Angélica Rivera); por las matanzas de Tlatlaya, las desapariciones de los estudiantes de Ayotzinapa, hasta los más recientes enfrentamientos (Tanhuato, Michoacán) del narcotráfico.

Loret de Mola describe el empeño prendario de México en una exposición, que nos deja claro que los caudales de dinero que manejan las grandes casas y el reducido número de familias a través de gigantescos monopolios, no serían posibles si no fuera por la ayuda de los mandatarios en turno, quienes según el autor parecen tener escasos o nulos conocimientos sobre conceptos tales como la soberanía y la democracia, pero sí un amplio bagaje en prácticas de corrupción y venta de los recursos que no les pertenecen.

Empeñados también describe el empeño que muchos connacionales tienen por recuperar nuestra soberanía. La autonomía y poder de decisión arrebatados que, junto a la desaceleración económica, orillaron al actual gobierno a concretar la entreguista reforma energética, fraguada desde hace años, como devela el autor.
